Aotearoa New Zealand

1. If the concern is about Montessori Aotearoa then the concern should be sent in writing to the Montessori Aotearoa Chief Executive. The Chief Executive may discuss the concern with the Montessori Aotearoa president and/or Montessori Aotearoa Council before a response is sent in writing.
2. If the concern is about an employee of Montessori Aotearoa then the concern should be sent directly to the employee concerned. The employee can respond directly or consult Montessori Aotearoa Chief Executive in the first instance. If the concern is about the Chief Executive, the Chief Executive will work to resolve this and will advise the Montessori Aotearoa president and/or Montessori Aotearoa Council. If the issue is not resolved the complainant can then contact the Montessori Aotearoa president directly.
3. If the concern is about a member of Montessori Aotearoa Council, in relation to their Montessori Aotearoa Council role, then the concern should be sent directly to the member concerned. The member can respond directly and/or consult the Montessori Aotearoa president and/or Montessori Aotearoa Council. However, Montessori Aotearoa president must be made aware of the concern. If the issue is not resolved the complainant can then contact the Montessori Aotearoa president.

A Concern to Montessori Aotearoa Against a Member School (refers to early learning centres and schools) | Kōamuamu ki a Montessori Aotearoa mō te Kura Mema

Should a concern be made to MANZ regarding a member school the complainant will be advised that:

1. Montessori Aotearoa is a support organisation for Montessori early learning centres and schools, who are voluntary members. Montessori Aotearoa does not carry out compliance reviews of Montessori centres or schools.
2. Montessori Aotearoa has no legal responsibility for Montessori early learning centres or schools and does not have control over the fees charged, donations requested or other operational aspects of individual Montessori centres or schools.
3. All Montessori early learning centres and schools have a set of operating policies which include a Concerns and Complaints Policy. This policy must be displayed for parents/whānau at all times.
4. The complainant will be advised to follow the process outlined in the early learning centres or school's Concerns and Complaints Policy.
5. If the concern remains unresolved the local Ministry of Education (MoE) can be contacted.

Note:

Montessori Aotearoa does not have the power or resources to mediate disputes between individuals in Montessori early learning centres or schools.
